All Saints' Sunday

WELCOME TO ALL

Welcome to worship at Trinity Lutheran Church! We are glad you are here. We are delighted to gather as one people in the name of the risen Lord Jesus, in whose power over disease and death we take hope.

Please use this bulletin to participate in the liturgy and take it with you when the service is ended.

Based on revised CDC guidance, we are no longer encouraging the wearing of masks for those attending worship, regardless of vaccination status. However, if you have symptoms, have tested positive for Covid or been exposed to someone with Covid-19, we ask that you do wear a mask.

Please feel free to continue wearing a mask in worship for your safety, if desired.

This guidance may change if our risk level changes.

We track attendance for communion. If you plan to commune, you're invited to register yourself beforehand on our website (trinitylutheranchambersburg.org), by calling the church office (717-263-8156), or ushers can register you when you arrive.

Bathrooms are located down the hall from the side entrance to the sanctuary.

Children are always welcome during worship, but if desired, there is a nursery in room 107 available for children ages birth to school age.

*Please be aware that we are streaming our services.
If you do not wish to be on camera please contact the church office.*

Traditional Service with Holy Communion

In holy baptism God makes saints out of sinners.

In holy communion God forgives the sins of all the saints.

In worship today we give thanks for all the saints “who from their labors rest.”

In the same breath we petition our God for the strength to hear and to heed the admonitions of Jesus in today’s gospel.

Sealed by the Spirit and sustained by the Savior’s body and blood, we live with joy as God gives us breath, to the praise of God’s glory.

WELCOME / ANNOUNCEMENTS

Congregation responds in bold print.

Please respect the silence of those around you preparing for worship.

Please stand as you are able.

Call to Worship

REVELATION 7:9-17

They will hunger no more,
and thirst no more;
the sun will not strike them,
nor any scorching heat;
for the Lamb at the center of the throne will be their shepherd, and he will guide them to springs of the water of life,
and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes.

Heaven and earth are filled with the light of the saints who have gone on before us shining around us still as we're running this race grateful the path is lit for us.

HEBREWS 12

We remember, O God...

The countless saints of history

who have blazed a trail of courage through time,

We remember, O God...

The tender touch of loved ones,

the example of heroes,

the healing words of comforters,

the remarkable acts of fearless ones.

We remember, O God...

The gentle strength of grandmothers,

the loyalty of friends,

the kindness of strangers,

the joy of children,

the sacrifice of parents.

We remember, O God...

The supreme love of Jesus,

the blessing of his Spirit,

the reminder of his words,

the sharing of his suffering,

We remember the glory of his resurrection:

shown forth in the lives of his disciples,

young and old,

dead and living,

articulate and silent,

strange and familiar,

brilliant and ordinary.

We remember in every time and place the saints of God who have shown us the Lord.

Since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses...

let us worship God with joy!

During the "Hymn Medley", the congregation is invited to come forward and light a candle in memory of a loved one(s).

WORD

FIRST READING

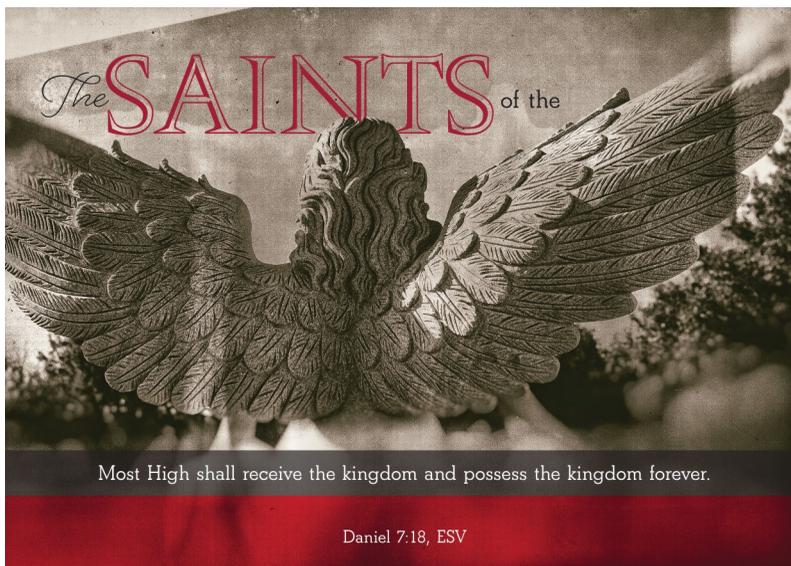

Daniel 7:1-3, 15-18

The book of Daniel was written in the second century BCE, when the Syrian king Antiochus Epiphanes was severely persecuting the Jews. Daniel's vision of the four beasts proclaims that human kings will come and go, but the kingdom will ultimately belong to God and to God's people.

¹In the first year of King Belshazzar of Babylon, Daniel had a dream and visions of his head as he lay in bed. Then he wrote down the dream: ²I, Daniel, saw in my vision by night the four winds of heaven stirring up the great sea, ³and four great beasts came up out of the sea, different from one another.

¹⁵As for me, Daniel, my spirit was troubled within me, and the visions of my head terrified me. ¹⁶I approached one of the attendants to ask him the truth concerning all this. So he said that he would disclose to me the interpretation of the matter: ¹⁷“As for these four great beasts, four kings shall arise out of the earth. ¹⁸But the holy ones of the Most High shall receive the kingdom and possess the kingdom forever—forever and ever.”

Word of God. Word of Life.
Thanks be to God!

PSALMODY

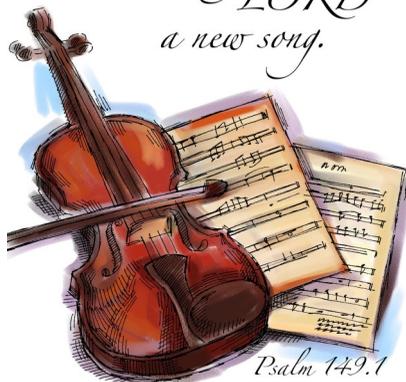

Psalm 149

We will speak the Psalm responsively.

Sing the Lord's praise in the assembly of the faithful. (Ps. 149:1)

- ¹Hallelujah! Sing to the LORD a new song, God's praise in the assembly of the faithful.
- ²Let Israel rejoice in their maker;
let the children of Zion be joyful in their ruler.
- ³Let them praise their maker's name with dancing;
let them sing praise with tambourine and harp.
- ⁴For the LORD takes pleasure in the people and adorns the poor with victory.
- ⁵Let the faithful rejoice in triumph;
let them sing for joy on their beds.
- ⁶Let the praises of God be in their throat and a two-edged sword in their hand,
- ⁷to wreak vengeance on the nations and punishment on the peoples,
- ⁸to bind their kings in chains and their nobles with links of iron,
- ⁹to inflict on them the judgment decreed;
this is glory for all God's faithful ones. Hallelujah!

*Praise the LORD!
Sing to the
a new song.*

Psalm 149.1

SECOND READING

Ephesians 1:11-23

After giving thanks for the faith of the Ephesians, the writer of this letter prays that they might understand the wisdom, hope, and power of God that is embodied in Jesus Christ.

¹¹In Christ we have also obtained an inheritance, having been destined according to the purpose of him who accomplishes all things according to his counsel and will, ¹²so that we, who were the first to set our hope on Christ, might live for the praise of his glory. ¹³In him you also, when you had heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and had believed in him, were marked with the seal of the promised Holy Spirit; ¹⁴this is the pledge of our inheritance toward redemption as God's own people, to the praise of his glory.

¹⁵I have heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love toward all the saints, and for this reason ¹⁶I do not cease to give thanks for you as I remember you in my prayers. ¹⁷I pray that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you a spirit of wisdom and revelation as you come to know him, ¹⁸so that, with the eyes of your heart enlightened, you may know what is the hope to which he has called you, what are the riches of his glorious inheritance among the saints, ¹⁹and what is the immeasurable greatness of his power for us who believe, according to the working of his great power. ²⁰God put this power to work in Christ when he raised him from the dead and seated him at his right hand in the heavenly places, ²¹far above all rule and authority and power and dominion, and above every name that is named, not only in this age but also in the age to come. ²²And he has put all things under his feet and has made him the head over all things for the church, ²³which is his body, the fullness of him who fills all in all.

Word of God. Word of Life.
Thanks be to God!

Please stand as you are able.

Gospel Reading is from The Message.

GOSPEL

Luke 6:20-31

In echoes of the prophet Isaiah and Mary's song of praise, Jesus reveals surprising things about who enjoys blessing and who endures woe. He invites his disciples to shower radical love, blessing, forgiveness, generosity, and trust even on enemies and outsiders.

The Holy Gospel according to Luke, the 6th chapter.

Glory to you, O Lord.

²⁰Then [Jesus] spoke:

You're blessed when you've lost it all.
God's kingdom is there for the finding.

You're blessed when you're ravenously hungry.
Then you're ready for the Messianic meal.

You're blessed when the tears flow freely.
Joy comes with the morning.

²²⁻²³ “Count yourself blessed every time someone cuts you down or throws you out, every time someone smears or blackens your name to discredit me. What it means is that the truth is too close for comfort and that that person is uncomfortable. You can be glad when that happens—skip like a lamb, if you like!—for even though they don't like it, I do . . . and all heaven applauds. And know that you are in good company; my preachers and witnesses have always been treated like this.

²⁴ But it's trouble ahead if you think you have it made.
What you have is all you'll ever get.

²⁵ And it's trouble ahead if you're satisfied with yourself.
Your self will not satisfy you for long.

Continues on next page.

And it's trouble ahead if you think life's all fun and games.
There's suffering to be met, and you're going to meet it.

²⁶ “There's trouble ahead when you live only for the approval of others, saying what flatters them, doing what indulges them. Popularity contests are not truth contests—look how many scoundrel preachers were approved by your ancestors! Your task is to be true, not popular.

²⁷⁻³⁰ “To you who are ready for the truth, I say this: Love your enemies. Let them bring out the best in you, not the worst. When someone gives you a hard time, respond with the supple moves of prayer for that person. If someone slaps you in the face, stand there and take it. If someone grabs your shirt, giftwrap your best coat and make a present of it. If someone takes unfair advantage of you, use the occasion to practice the servant life. No more payback. Live generously.

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, O Christ.

Please be seated.

APOSTLES' CREED

With the whole church, let us confess our faith.

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven,
he is seated at the right hand of the Father,
and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting.
Amen.
